Action Beyond the UBSSW

Media

Phys.org reported on the Boston-based research by Dr. Christopher St. Vil and colleague. One finding: community-based programs and intergroup-contact can advance anti-racism practices and help foster racial unity. The research team interviewed members of the nonprofit Inner City Weightlifting program.

UBSSW members of SWAA and our alums are getting back to our radical roots, w/ racial justice on the agenda.

Antiracist Pedagogy Peer Support

Committee on Students

Continuing to evaluate student award nominations and how we promote them.

Evaluating handbook policies and practices, such as policies for grievances and ethical violations, and assessing how the Restorative Practices Process can support or supplement these processes.

Student Services developed and implemented a formal tracking system for inquiries from students about possible grievances.
Consciousness-raising

UBSSW administrative team is reviewing feedback from Dr. Kenneth Hardy’s December 2021 talk on integrating racial equity with trauma-informed care & human rights. Feedback will be used to plan Spring 2022 sessions.

Intergroup Dialogue: Unpacking Whiteness

Using the model of intergroup dialogue (IGD), a peer-led white caucus space has been established for UBSSW students. The group meets monthly to explore white identity and actionable ways to practice anti-racist social work.

Join for a NEW GROUP starting at UB Counseling in Feb/March. For info, email cmbearss@buffalo.edu.

Racial Justice Projects Course

To enable racial justice action at the UBSSW, MSW students can receive elective credit through this course. Spring 2022 course sessions include:

- event planning centering Black communities
- anti-racist community organizing & working with accountability partners
- power mapping

MSW Curriculum:

We are revising existing course sequences and clusters to reflect anti-racism more thoroughly. We also are considering both the explicit and implicit curriculum.

Spring 2022 Undergraduate Course:

SW 130: Dismantling Anti-Blackness

Tues & Thurs 2-3:20pm
Instructor: Josie Diebold

This course examines historic and contemporary anti-Black racism and white supremacy in the US. Students will analyze policies and strategies to challenge and transform the values, structures, and behaviors that perpetuate systemic racism and anti-blackness. Students will engage in self-reflection and participate in critical analysis of systems of privilege and oppression, as well develop personal strategies for becoming anti-racist and facilitating change in communities and society.

Doctoral Programs

Admissions and Recruitment:
DPC is partnering with the UBSSW Admissions team to strengthen recruitment and admissions processes.

Doctoral Programs Committee (DPC) Process:
DPC has added on-going agenda item to each meeting related to racial justice.

DSW & PhD Curricula:
DPC continues to examine the implicit curriculum with racial equity lens. Faculty and student Sharing Session will be held this Spring to continue the conversation.

Doctoral Students:
PhD student group, Navigation, hosting speakers with focus on racial justice:
- 10/15/21: Dr. Noelle St Vil, Incorporating anti-racism in research
- 11/19/21: DSW Student, Michelle Fortunado-Kewin, Restorative justice process in UBSSW
- 12/17/21: Dr. Theresa McCarthy, Incorporating Indigenous knowledge and human rights in research
- 3/18/21: Dr. Kelly Patterson, Using research to combat systemic racism in housing segregation

DPC meetings are public and transparent:
- agenda will be shared with faculty, staff, and students;
- all are welcome to attend and/or share ideas,
- next meeting 2/16 at 11 am;
- Zoom link here.

DPC has begun an audit of PhD courses for racial equity and anti-racist content.
2021-2022 Goals and Progress
identified by the Field Team in Nov 2021

1. Intentional site development and partnership
   - Revamp site development process to emphasize expectations for sites in terms of racial justice and equality
   - Further (and intentional) development of field sites explicitly engaged in racial and social justice
   - Use budget to support agencies engaged in racial justice or anti-racist work without a social worker on staff
     - Developed Field partnership with Gloria J Parks Community Center; students to start in Fall 2022

2. Revise Processes and Procedures with a lens toward racial justice and equality
   - Started overhauling the field manual
   - Develop a quality improvement process for agencies when racism and/or other forms of oppression occur (restorative practices)
   - Revise communications and year-end survey to more explicitly invite students to share experiences of racism at field settings.

3. Training and Orientation Processes
   - Provided a follow-up training in February to liaisons on restorative practices in field education and practiced specific scenarios
   - Increase content on race/racism within orientations (of students, field educators, liaisons)
   - Provide a training for field educators on interrupting racism in field settings
Recruitment Committee
- The committee is actively seeking to build skills and strategies for recruiting more diverse faculty members (e.g., attending workshops, hosting Dean Alford).
- In Fall 2021, Dr. Chris St. Vil reached out to all HBCUs with SW doctoral programs to encourage faculty applications.

Personnel Committee
- The Committee is examining models for promoting equity in promotion standards, policies, & procedures.

Bylaws Ad Hoc Committee
- Review of UBSSW Bylaws is being conducted with an eye toward enabling equity in faculty governance.
Research & Scholarship

UBSSW Racial Justice Research Spotlight:

Through community-engaged research with refugees, Sarah Richards-Desai, PhD Candidate, explores important and timely topics, including a recent study with Dr. Yunju Nam and Yingying Zeng that points to language-based disparities and a need for culturally responsive policy and programming in supporting resettlement efforts. Sarah’s research agenda was also recently featured in UBSSW’s most recent issue of Mosaics.

Buffalo Center for Social Research (BCSR) Climate:

- The BCSR Grants Team is examining how to incorporate racial equity in the grant consultation process.
- The BCSR is committed to supporting racialized faculty and student scholars through training and mentoring programs.
- The BCSR Research Advisory Council is examining the current Research Awards process to ensure a racial equity lens is used to identify excellence in research.

Recruitment & Marketing
- Inclusive recruiting efforts with organizations and geographic areas that are more likely to elicit diverse applicants (e.g., TRIO, McNair scholars, National Idealist Fair)
- Fostering educational partnerships through direct communication with specific undergraduate institutions (e.g., HBCU)
- Establishing UBSSW admissions awards supporting diversity among the student body
- Advising applicants on eligibility for application fee waivers
- Advocating across UB departments for greater flexibility in recruitment

Student Recruitment

Admissions Review Process
- Maintaining a consistent, fair, and equitable review process
- Supporting and assisting faculty reviewers to review applications in accordance with our policies and procedures
- Requiring multiple application reviews for each applicant
- Promoting a holistic application review approach, while maintaining fair and equitable discussion of applicants' materials
- Continued quality improvement regarding application eligibility, requirements, and review process

Application Policies & Procedures
- Maintaining a consistent, replicable, and equitable application process
- Provide coaching and offer opportunities for guidance with applications
- Assisting applicants with steps to application completion and deadlines
- Live and virtual information sessions
