

The University at Buffalo School of Social Work is excited to offer

Arthur A. Schomburg Fellowships

to academically outstanding new MSW, MSW/PhD, and PhD students who will contribute to diversity, especially those who have overcome disadvantages.

MSW:

- Full tuition (2 years)
- $12,000 stipend each year

MSW/PhD:

- Full tuition (MSW + seated PhD coursework)
- $12,000 stipend for MSW (2 years) then $26,000 for 2 years of PhD (includes assistantship)

PhD:

- Full tuition for seated coursework
- $26,000 stipend for 4 years (includes assistantship)

Schomburg Fellows also receive student health insurance, annual student membership in their national professional association, up to $1,000/ year for books, and up to $1,000/ year for conference travel.

Students must apply by their program deadline to be considered.

For more information about our programs, visit:
socialwork.buffalo.edu, or contact
Lauren McGowan, Director of Recruitment and Admissions, at lm77@buffalo.edu

